

Introducing Logan Weber

Logan Weber is a motivational speaker for Weber Associates.

His dynamic and relevant presentations have led to opportunities to work with some of the nation's top companies like Cintas, Toyota, Idealease, Southern Company, and more.

Logan has keynoted the School Nutrition Association's and FBLA-PBL's National Leadership Conferences, as well as dozens of statewide conferences in nutrition, healthcare, and education in Georgia, California, New York, Texas, Tennessee, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Virginia, Louisiana, North Carolina, Washington State, and Maine, just to name a few.

Passionate about servant-leadership and positively influencing the world around him, Logan also co-founded the non-profit organization Dry Tears, which constructed deep-water wells and irrigation systems in rural Africa and South America. In 2008, Dry Tears received the Helping Hands Award from the United Way.

Finally, Logan is the co-author of the best-selling book, "Sticks and Stones Exposed: The Power of Our Words," and he also hosts The More Different Podcast where he shares real life stories, and positive life truths. He and his wife and young family live in Atlanta, Ga.
